

THURSDAY, AUGUST 20, 2015

Knox 4-H Club to host swim party

Special to
The Knox County News-Courier

KNOX CITY – The Knox County 4-H Club will be hosting a swim party here on Thursday, Aug. 27 from 6:15 - 8:15 p.m. at the Knox City Swimming Pool. All 4-Hers, past and present, are welcome to come and bring a friend. The party is also open to anyone interested in finding out more about 4-H. The 4-H Club will also be serving hot dogs.

If you have never been in 4-H and would like to know what all you can do in the club, please stop by the pool for a hot dog and more information. The club is open to ages Kindergarten - 12th grade. K-2nd are clover kids and not able to compete in contests. Ages 3rd grade and up are eligible to compete in contests. There are a wide variety of projects to take part in like food and nutrition, clothing, livestock, judging, photography, shooting sports and much more.

For more information, call the Extension office at 459-2651 or speak to a 4-H officer—President, Ryan Earthman; VP of Knox City, McKayla Coplen; VP of Munday, Kathryn Cude; VP of Benjamin, Kinsey Benson; Secretary, Grace Tidwell; Reporter, Shawn Earthman; Historian, Corrie Earthman.